

Introduction to Media Language

Session 1:
Semiotics & Symbols

Session One

By the end of this session you will be able to:

- ➔ Read the denotative and connotative levels of meaning within a PRINT media text
- ➔ Use and understand the key terms used in the analysis of media language (Denotation, Connotation, Signifier & Signified)
- ➔ Write a coherent analysis of the symbolic codes within a movie poster

Analysing Media Texts: A Framework

- ➔ Divides codes of media language into three categories – these can help you to understand the meanings of a printed text

1. SYMBOLIC

Lighting & Colour

Positioning

Setting & Locations

Facial Expressions & Body Language

Objects

Key Signifiers/Images

Clothing, Hair & Make Up

2. WRITTEN

Slogan

Typeface/Font

Headlines

Captions

Style

Choice of words

Emphasis of words

3. TECHNICAL

Camera Angles

Framing (ELS, LS, MLS, MS, CU, ECU, POV)

Cropping

Juxtaposition (2 separate signs that together make contrasting meaning)

KEY TERM: Semiotics

Definition: The study of SIGNS

- ➔ Examines how symbolic, written and technical signs construct meaning
- ➔ Looks at how meaning is made and understood

KEY TERM RECAP:

Signifier & Signified

- ➔ THE SIGNIFIER – The sign: a word, colour or image (i.e. the colour BLUE)
- ➔ THE SIGNIFIED – The concept/meaning/associations that the sign refers to (i.e. BLUE is often associated with sadness or the sea etc.)

Signifier & Signified: Examples

- Signifier: Red rose with a green stem
- Signifies: a symbol of passion and love - this is what the rose represents

- Signifier: Brown cross
- Signifies: a symbol of religion, or to be more specific this is a symbol of Christianity

- Signifier: Heart
- Signifies: a symbol of love and affection

TASK: Green
What does 'green' signify?

TASK: What do the following signs signify?
Make a list of all the meanings and associations you can think of for each signifier:

A

B

C

D

E

A: Barbie Doll

B: Hamburger

C: The Statue of Liberty

D: Bus

E: Nike Swoosh

Signs & Cultural Differences

➔ How we read a sign depends on our culture:

EXAMPLE: In Britain, we associate the colour white with innocence, purity, weddings

In China, white is the colour of mourning and is worn at funerals

How to read the signs and signifiers within a Media Text

- ➔ All media texts have 2 layers of meaning:
- ➔ DENOTATIVE LEVEL: What we actually see
- ➔ CONNOTATIVE LEVEL: What you associate with this image

KEY TERMS 3: Denotation & Connotation

- ➔ Denotative: The surface meaning
- ➔ Connotative: The deeper or hidden meanings and associations

This image denotes the movie star Marilyn Monroe

The image connotes glamour, stardom, sexuality, beauty

If this was one of the last photographs of Marilyn Monroe, we may also associate it with her depression, drug-taking and ultimately death

This image denotes a tropical island

The image connotes peace, tranquility paradise, holiday, summer to some readers.

...but think about the film 'Castaway', the victims of the Bali bombings or the recent tsunami - in this case the image may connote isolation, fear or even death

It is important to note that images have different connotations depending on the reader of the image/text

Denotation & Connotation within a Media Text – A Movie Poster

The Mission Impossible Poster denotes a MATCH and a GLOBE OF THE WORLD

What are the connotations of
a) The match?
b) The globe?

TASK: Denotation & Connotation within a Media Text – A Movie Poster

1. What are the key signifiers in the movie poster and what do they signify?
2. What are the denotative levels of meaning in the poster? (What does the poster denote?)
3. What are the connotative levels of meaning in the poster? (What does the poster connote?)
4. What are they communicating to an audience?
Why?

Introduction to Media Language

Session 2:
Magazines & Written Codes

Session 2: Media Language

By the end of the session you will be able to:

- ➔ Identify the written codes with a print media text
- ➔ Carry out a semiotic analysis of the symbolic and written codes within a magazine cover

Recap

- ➔ What is the denotative level of a media text?
- ➔ What is the connotative level of a media text?

Can you name:
i) the signifiers

ii) what they signify (at least 5 meanings/associations)

A

B

C

D

E

What do the following images:

- i) denote
- ii) connote

A

B

Written Aspects to note

The study of written codes includes:

- Slogans
- Typeface/Font
- Headlines
- Captions
- Style
- Choice of words
- Emphasis of words

Introduction to Media Language

Session 3: Advertisements

Session 3

- ➔ By the end of the session you will be able to:
- ➔ Produce an analysis of the media language codes within an advertisement
- ➔ Analyse the representation of gender within advertisements

Recap:

What do the following fonts connote/signify?

COSMO™ girl!

MTV
MUSIC TELEVISION®

M:i:III
05.05.2006

LARA CROFT
TOMB RAIDER
L E G E N D

Buffy
the Vampire slayer

SIGNIFIER: Blonde Hair
Signifies:
Ideal Woman,
Innocence,
Looks 'gold'

SIGNIFIER: Jewellery
Signifies:
Extravagance,
Excess,
Glamour,
Decedance

SIGNIFIER: Font
Signifies:
Dior Logo,
Brand Name,
Designer

SIGNIFIER: Perfume Bottle
Signifies:
Looks Jewel-like,
Buried Treasure

SIGNIFIER: Word 'Love'
Signifies:
Passion, Excitement,
Lust

SIGNIFIER: Colour Gold
Signifies:
Luxury, Riches,
Expense,
Success,
Shimmering

Christian Dior
PARIS

Dior
Jadore
LE FEMININ ABSOLU.

TASK

- ➔ Use arrows to highlight:
- ➔ A) The key signifiers
- ➔ B) Their connotative meaning

Gender Representations in Advertising

Goffmans Theory (1972)

- In the portrayal of men and women, advertising often uses the following codes and conventions:
- Superiority, Domination & Body Language: Men are shown in dominant positions and appear to be reflective of thought and intelligence. Women are physically portrayed in sexual or reclining poses with blank or inviting expressions.
- Dismemberment: On females, parts of the body such as legs, chest, etc., are used, rather than the full body. This is often applied to sell products which are not related to the body, such as mobile phones (right)
- The Voice-Over Authority: In moving image advertisements, male voices are used as voice-over's in commercials rather than females.

UNFORGIVABLE

THE FRAGRANCE FOR MEN BY

Sean John

ASSIGNMENT:

Carry out a Semiotic Analysis of an advertisement commenting on the relevant headings listed below:

1. SYMBOLIC & WRITTEN SIGNIFIERS

Lighting & Colours

Positioning of Words & Images

Setting & Locations

Facial Expressions & Body Language (of people)

Typeface/Font Style

Key (Main) Images/Signifiers

Clothing, Hair & Make Up

2. Goffman's Theory

Does the advert adhere to Goffman's gender theory? Comment on the representation of men/women featured within the advert?

Minimum of 500 words please

Comparing Imagery

1. In pairs, discuss and make notes on the following:
 - What is the denotative level of meaning in each image? What does each image denote?
 - What is the connotative level of meaning in each image? What does each image connote?
 - Why do you think different images have been chosen?
 - What meanings do the images convey to audiences?